Amanda E. Carrizales is an associate attorney with our Commercial Litigation and Bankruptcy Practices. During law school, she served as a Judicial Intern in the United States Bankruptcy Court, District of Arizona, to the Hon. Scott H. Gan, who concurrently presided over the Bankruptcy Appellate Panel of the Ninth Circuit. In addition, Amanda was a Judicial Intern in the Maricopa County Superior Court to the Hon. Lisa A. Vandenberg where she assisted in drafting an order involving a matter of first impression. Before law school, Amanda contributed to her community as an AmeriCorps member at the Maricopa County Superior Court Law Library. In this capacity, she provided essential support to self-represented litigants, helping them navigate the complexities of the court system, and ensuring access to justice. Amanda was raised in Laveen, Arizona, and looks forward to applying her legal skills to serve and grow with our Arizona-based clients.
